

. . . , That a county be, and the same is hereby laid off and established out of that portion of the county of Surry, which lies South of the Yadkin river, and also including that portion of the county of Surry known and called by the name of Little Surry, said county to be called Yadkin; . . .⁹⁵⁷

Part of Yadkin was annexed to Forsyth in 1911.

That all that portion of Yadkin County included within the boundaries hereinafter set out, shall be and hereby is annexed to and made a part of the county of Forsyth. Said boundaries are as follows: Beginning on the line between the counties of Yadkin and Forsyth at the northeast corner of the Little Yadkin Township, on the Yadkin River; thence down said river a distance of one mile; thence a straight line to the point where the public road from Lewisville to West Bend, sometime called the Nading's Ferry road, crosses the county line; thence northwardly with the county line to the beginning.⁹⁵⁸

Part of Yadkin was annexed to Forsyth in 1927.

Whereas, all of Little Yadkin Township, Yadkin County, which is all of Yadkin County lying east of the Yadkin River and adjoining Forsyth County, is separated from the remainder of Yadkin County by a natural boundary line, which is the Yadkin River; and

Whereas, the board of county commissioners of Forsyth County and the board of county commissioners of Yadkin County, each are unanimously in favor of transferring said territory from Yadkin County to Forsyth County, and large majority of the residents of said territory are in favor of said transfer; and

Whereas, it has been agreed by and between the respective boards of commissioners of said counties, that said territory might be transferred and annexed to Forsyth County on the conditions and terms hereinafter embodied in this act: Now, therefore, . . .

That all that territory known and designated as Little Yadkin Township, Yadkin County, which is all that portion of Yadkin County lying east of the Yadkin River and adjoining Forsyth County, be and the same is hereby transferred from the said Yadkin County and annexed to the county of Forsyth, and the boundary line between said counties of Forsyth and Yadkin be and the same is hereby changed and fixed so that the Yadkin River shall be the boundary line between said counties.⁹⁵⁹

YANCEY

Yancey was formed in 1833 from Burke and Buncombe. It was named in honor of Bartlett Yancey, an eloquent orator, many times a member of the Legislature, speaker of the State Senate, and member of Congress. He was also one of the earliest advocates of the public school system of North Carolina. It is in the western section of the State and is bounded by the state
